UFV ARTS CO-OP STUDENT (2017)

SHOW OFF!

WITH OUR NEW E-PORTFOLIO #UFVBA

UFV ARTS SUMMER CO-OP

BACKGROUND

University of the Fraser Valley is located in Abbotsford BC. Their Arts department wanted to develop a social media presence to better communicate to Arts students.

PROBLEM

Manageability. The idea was that the arts assistant would run the platform at the end of summer, instead the role became a UFV work-study (a part-time job for students).

AUDIENCE

Primarily Arts students, but also UFV alumni, professors, and potential students.

SOLUTION

After research, Canva was selected for media creation, due to its ease of use. It was also determined that posters would be needed around campus to help inform students of Arts events.

*Most photos are gathered from UFV's Flickr or Canva. Toque photos are my own.

The Myth

The College of Arts is just fine arts.

The Fact

The COA offers over 20 areas of study.

The Myth

Only Arts students can benefit from Arts.

The Fact

Arts electives can help all students communicate, think critically/creatively, and develop their worldview.

The Myth

Arts degrees aren't employable.

The Fact

Arts degrees build skills sought by all employers. Tailor your degree towards your career goals.

You can't follow UFV Arts online.

RECORDMAN ALBUM COVER

BACKGROUND

The Puns are a semi-popular indie rock band.

PROBLEM

They need a cover for their new album called Recordman. The cover needs to work across music distribution platforms. They'd also like to be able to easily merchandise it.

AUDIENCE

Canadian rock fans, between the ages of 15 and 35, who enjoy a tongue and cheek approach to music.

SOLUTION

A cross market examination (record store, CD stands, iTunes) resulted in the conclusion that a minimal and bright album cover would stand out the best.
